DINNERS AND PARTIES.

One of the delightful social affairs of last week was the luncheon of 10 covers given Saturday by Mrs. C. E. Kelly to the officers of the Daughters of the Confederacy. Mrs. Kelly is the retiring president. In the table appointments the Confederate colors of red and white were attractively developed with carnations, and the same colors were also carried out in the delicious menu.

Mrs. G. H. Richardson entertained recently at her home with a very enjoyable "porch party." The morning hours were spent in doing fancy work, and dainty refreshments were served to the guests, who were: Mesdames T. J. Beall, E. E. Neff, W. M. Petticolas, W. L. Tooley, W. C. Klutz, W. T. Hixson, J. W. Lorentzen, D. P. Holland, F. C. Earle and J. J. Mundy.

There are many styles of hairdressing that are fashionable this fall. Let us help you choose the one most becoming to you. Elke Parlors, 5 and 7, Stevens Bldg.

The Hill Summit

(By Rosetti.)

HAVE you sat at the dawn or the evening,
And felt the call of the hour?
That comes like a grand benediction,
From the deep of an unknown power.

'Tis a call that comes to the spirit,
From the realms of a longing desire,
Awakening the genius within you,
Seeking your soul to inspire.

Yearn for those hours of calling,
Look to the heights of delight,
Long for visions celestial,
That shine like stars of the night.

'Twill give you a life immortal,
And write on the scroll of fame,
In great, large golden symbols,
The letters that spell your name.

ABOUT EL PASOANS.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Anderson are now occupying their new home at 1507 North Kansas street.

Mrs. A. S. Valdespino, who has been seriously ill in Mexico City, is reported somewhat improved.

WEDDINGS.

One of the most charming church weddings of the fall season was that of Miss Ethel Rowe and J. Walter Christy, solemnized Monday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock at St. Clement's Episcopal church.

The church was simply, but most effectively decorated with numbers of palms, which formed an aisle leading from the chancel steps to the altar, while the altar was covered with a profusion of white carnations and ferns, over which the many candles shed a soft radiance.

As a prelude to the ceremony, Miss Adele Paxton played the "Angel Chorus" and Schubert's Serenade, which was followed by the Lohengrin wedding march, sung by the full vested choir of the church as they advanced up the aisle. The ushers, H. E. Christy and Herman Bateman, entered next, and were followed by the maid of honor, Miss Alma Johnson. Then came the bride, leaning on the arm of her father. They were met at the altar by the groom and his best man, George L. Christy, and the marriage service was impressively said by Rev. Henry Easter.

The bride looked very lovely in a gown of white chiffon satin, with pearl trimmings and hand embroidered. The hat was a picture model with willow plumes, and her flowers were bride's roses and ferns in shower effect. The only ornament worn was a diamond brooch, the gift of the groom.

Miss Alma Johnson, the maid of honor, was attractively gowned in pink hand-painted chiffon, over pink silk. A pink picture hat completed this becoming costume. Pink roses and ferns in shower effect were carried.

The bridal party left the church to the strains of the Wagner wedding march and returned to the home of the bride, 1205 Boulevard, where a reception was held from 6 to 9 o'clock. Yellow and white cut flowers combined in developing a most attractive color scheme for the decorations of the house.

In the receiving line were: Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Rowe, Mrs. J. M. Burroughs, Miss Alma Johnson, G. L. Christy and the bride and groom. Miss Adele Paxton and Miss Essie Darbyshire presided at the punch bowl, and Mrs. Charles Whittington assisted in the dining room, where dainty ices in heart shape and cakes were served. In cutting the bride's cake, Miss Ceral Christy secured the ring, Miss Nellie Gaillard drew the thimble and penny, while the bride's bouquet, indicating the next bride, was caught by Miss Alma Johnson.

The bride, who is a charming young woman, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter A. Rowe. She has grown to womanhood in this city, is a graduate of the El Paso high school, and is very popular in musical circles, being the possessor of an unusually sweet voice. The groom is the son of Mrs. J. M. Burroughs. He has been reared in this city and has been for 14 years an employee of the El Paso Smelting company, where he holds a responsible position. The esteem in which the young people are held was attested by the handsome collection of wedding presents, noticeable among them, a chest of exquisite silver from Mr. Christy's friends at the smelter, and a handsome dinner set of 100 pieces from the groom's mother and brothers and sister.

The bride's going away gown was a tailored broadcloth in navy blue, with hat and accessories to correspond.

Mr. and Mrs. Christy left Monday evening for a month's tour of California, and upon their return will be at home at 1215 Wyoming street.

The marriage of Mrs. Ellen Windsor Syme to E. D. Alves is announced to take place on Thursday, September 29, at St. Clement's Episcopal church. The wedding will be quiet, with only relatives and intimate friends in attendance.

Immediately after the ceremony they will leave for New Orleans, St. Louis and other eastern cities, to be absent a month.

Mrs. Syme is the daughter of Mrs. E. E. Windsor of this city. She is well known in El Paso and has here a host of friends.

CHURCH AFFAIRS.

The reception given Monday evening by the women of the First Baptist church, complimentary to the school teachers of the city, was a most successful affair, both from the standpoint of attendance and the degree of hospitality shown. New teachers in the city greatly appreciated the cordial welcome, and also the opportunity to get acquainted.

The church parlors were attractively decorated for the occasion, sunflowers and English ivy being used in profusion, and producing a beautiful effect. The guests were received at the door by Dr. and Mrs. Robert Bruce Smith, assisted by the different members of the church. Little Ruth Smith and Mary Redmond distributed tags bearing the teachers' names, which served as a medium of introduction, and also added to the pleasant informality of the occasion. Rev. Robert Bruce Smith made a short address of welcome to the teachers, which was followed by a piano solo by Miss Julia Pool, and a very pleasing recitation by Miss Ethel Cook. Other impromptu musical numbers were also given. A number of the young high school girls assisted in serving the delightful refreshments of ices and cake.

The Women's Aid society of the First Christian church met this afternoon at 2 o'clock in the parlors of the church.

$5 and $10 Hats

Some stores may copy our prices, others our styles, but, none can successfully copy both. This applies particularly to the hats we are showing at a nominal price, that is, the two price ranges of $5.00 and $10.00. Nowhere in El Paso will you find such a range of styles to select from. Every imaginable kind of hat is in the collection. If you have in mind a hat at $7.50 or one for $12.50 you will find them here at $5.00 and $10.

Largest Workrooms In the City

Our Millinery Workrooms are the largest and best equipped in El Paso. Our designers and trimmers are experts. In case you cannot find just what is wanted in our regular stock it will be a simple matter to have a hat made in our workrooms that will meet your individual requirements.

"Fitting Faces" a Specialty Here

It is absolutely essential that a hat harmonize with the face and figure. Fitting millinery is of just as much importance as fitting a suit or gown. We pay particular attention to this point. The hat you get here will seem a part of you—it will suit the contour of your face and the lines of your figure.

SPECIAL NOTE—We again remind patrons that the service offered by Mrs. Lillian Johnson, who is now connected with this firm, is not to be overlooked. For quite a number of years in El Paso Mrs. Johnson has demonstrated her superior ability in the millinery business. Her services are at your disposal.
